TOMORROW'S LEADERS
— T O D A Y —

TLT Youth & Adult Leadership Academy

Program Overview

The TLT Youth and Adult Leadership Academy is a six-week program presented by TLT- Tomorrow's Leaders Today to any interested 8th grade through Jr. College Level student with an adult who lives or work in Collin or Denton county, held three times a year. Community focused sessions are once a week, ending with a certificate of graduation.

The purpose of TLT Youth and Adult Leadership Academy is to bring together emerging community and business leaders to encourage them to learn about, to question, to dream about, and to care for their community. Each session explores leadership dynamics, social service organizations, servant leadership, community growth and education, community health and safety, community government and community culture and leisure. Each member will work with their class building on and using their leadership skills to complete a class project that will benefit the community.

Participants are introduced to local officials, school board trustees, administrators, community leaders, as well as, local nonprofits and volunteer opportunities. Leadership skill topics are taught with active participation along with life-skills.

Each graduate is encouraged to actively contribute to the community's growth and future.

Civic Leadership Training

TLT Youth and Adult Leadership Academy (YAALA) has the following objectives:

- To inform the participants about the community's history, government, social needs, opportunities and existing processes for improvement.
- To introduce the participants to and establish dialogue with each other and the current leaders in their community.
- To encourage the participants to actively participate in future activities which contribute to the growth and betterment of the community.
- To provide current and future employers with a source of knowledgeable and trained leaders who can and will have a positive impact on the community.

If you are interested in participating, complete the application online at tltleaders.org or print the application out and return it by e-mail to info@tltleaders.org or by mail to TLT- Tomorrow's Leaders Today PO Box 5058, Frisco, Texas 75035.

Personal Development Training

TLT Youth and Adult Leadership Academy (YAALA) provides individuals with a program that assists in the development of leadership characteristics and skills. Individuals participate in various hands-on learning activities that will help identify personal values, visions, and life-long goals.

The program provides important concepts crucial to an emerging leader, ranging from problem solving to time management. Graduates of the program acquire a working knowledge of themselves as well as their community.

In short, TLT Youth and Adult Leadership Academy (YAALA) not only produces leaders, it also enriches the lives of all who participate in the program.

Class Schedule and Cost

TLT Youth and Adult Leadership Academy (YAALA) Classes run throughout the year in the Spring, Summer and Fall.

Cost for the Program is $125 for each youth participant and $150 for an adult. Local Chamber Member adults receive a discount. Being a Local Chamber of Commerce Member is not required.
